March Madness Workshop—Sunday, March 2nd at 9:45 AM during connections hour. Project YES will be hosting March Madness Workshops for all scholarship applicants and High School Students. These workshops will include sessions to help define your college experience, discuss the age of protesting, protection against sexual assault, and entrepreneurship. Attendance is a requirement for all scholarship applicants, so please be sure to get registered on the website.

Grief Share at Grace—Monday, March 3rd at 6:30PM. Grace Nation, Grief Share is back in March! If you have experienced a loss (regardless of when it occurred) and could benefit from being a part of a support group, please plan to join us in a space where trained facilitators assist members to navigate their grief journey, while building relationships with others who have experienced loss too. Please register on the website.

Couples Connection Class—Sunday, March 9th at 9:45AM. This is a class for all couples of Grace as we strive to build strong marriages as we are committed to love, committed for life. Our facilitators are Pastor & First Lady McFarland.
